

COVID impacts on college admission

How may 2021 admissions processes may still be different due to Covid-19. It is too early to speculate

- National testing dates for ACT and SAT may be cancelled or changed. Check with the high school or check the testing agency websites.
- Check dates to take the SAT at:

- Check dates to take the ACT at:
<https://www.act.org/content/act/en.html>
- Some colleges, given challenges of testing for students, may be chosen to make the SAT or ACT tests optional. Check each school that you are applying to see what that institution's policy is for testing requirements. (new bullet)
- College "visit days" may be modified, dates changed, or cancelled. Check with each college website.
- Depending on Covid-19 status, colleges may hold orientation programs remotely or on-line rather than in person.
- Depending on Covid-19 status, travel may be different to different locations in the U.S.
- Grades from 2020-2021 academic year may be viewed in light of suspended in-person classes, as schools moved to on-line instruction.
